AMENDMENTS TO COURT OPERATIONS DUE TO HURRICANE MELISSA

Kingston: Jamaica: The Judiciary of Jamaica is advising that due to the impending impact of Hurricane Melissa, all courts across Jamaica will remain closed until further notice.

Matters that were scheduled to commence or continue for the week of October 27, 2025, will be rescheduled and the parties advised of the new dates.

Members of the public are encouraged to check the social media channels of the Judiciary (@ Judiciary of Jamaica) for more information on their new court dates.

The Judiciary is urging all Jamaicans to remain vigilant and to follow official advisories as the country braces for the effects of Hurricane Melissa.

For further information, you may contact the Director for Client Services, Communications, & Information Division at the Court Administration Division.
