CLARIFICATION ON SUSPENSION OF BAIL REPORTING CONDITIONS DURING HURRICANE MELISSA

Kingston: Jamaica: The Judiciary of Jamaica is advising that the temporary suspension of bail reporting conditions, announced on October 25, 2025, applies only to the requirement for persons on bail to report to police stations or other designated reporting locations.

All other bail conditions imposed by the courts remain in full effect and must continue to be observed by persons on bail.

For further information, you may contact the Director for Client Services, Communications, & Information Division at the Court Administration Division.
