ST. CATHERINE PARISH COURT EVACUATED AFTER BOMB THREAT AFTERNOON SESSION POSTPONED

St. Catherine, Jamaica – September 24, 2025 – The Jamaica Constabulary Force (JCF) has confirmed receipt of a bomb threat against the St. Catherine Parish Court in Spanish Town. Safety protocols were immediately activated and all staff and persons present in the building were evacuated.

Members of the public are advised not to visit the court offices and all matters scheduled for the morning session have been temporarily suspended. The respective units of the JCF have been dispatched to the court to ensure the safety of the members of the public and court staff.

The CAD will provide subsequent updates on the matters that have been affected.

Members of the public with inquiries about their cases should contact the St. Catherine Parish Court.
